KIRAN'S TRUST

Introduction

The Directors, who are the charity trustees for the purposes of Charity Law, have pleasure in presenting their annual report and accounts for the year ended 31st December 2019.

The directors are satisfied with the performance of the charity during the year and the position at 31st December 2019 and consider that the charity is in a strong position to continue its activities during the coming year, and that the charity's assets are adequate to fulfil its obligations.

Objectives and Activities of the Charity

Summary of main activities and achievement of the charity in relation to its objects during the year

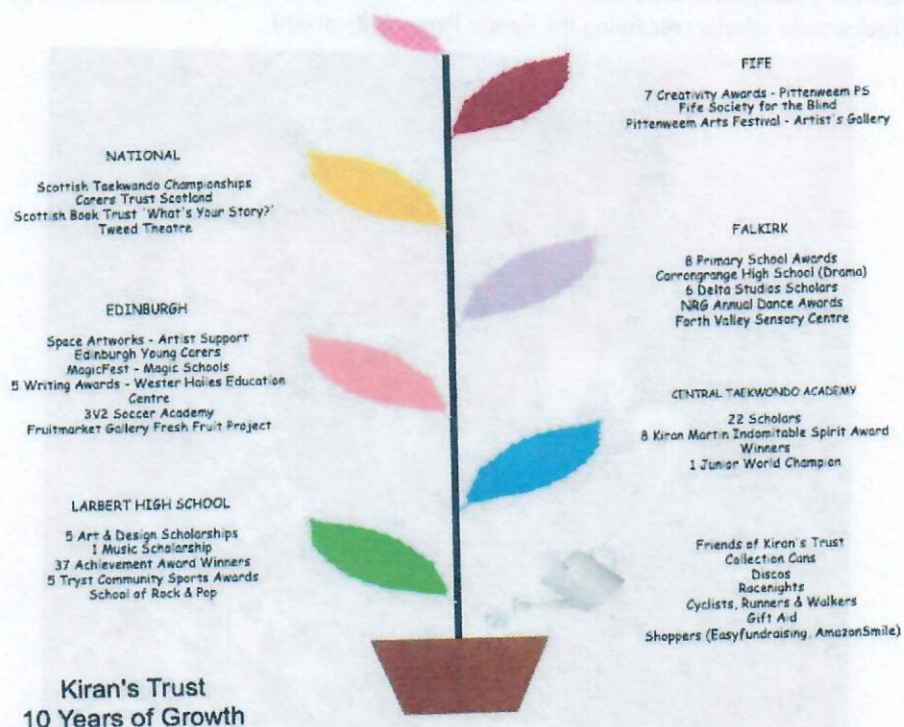

The objectives of the charity are to provide young people in Scotland with opportunities to advance their education and participation in creative expression and sport. These are achieved by providing support and access to tuition, scholarships, awards, and materials in the various creative arts, including but not limited to art, music, writing, and drama, as well as sporting activities. We work with local schools and recognised youth organisations to ensure both need and talent are equally considered and assisted.

2019 marked the 10th anniversary of Kiran's Trust. It is a milestone the Directors are very proud of along with the support and achievements of everyone who has been associated with us throughout this period. The graphic below was included in our tenth birthday newsletter and depicts the depth and breadth of our work.

Falkirk Area

Larbert High School, Kiran's former secondary school, is a positive and proactive outlet for Kiran's Trust to support creative arts education. Four school prizes are awarded each year (£25 voucher, along with trophies valued at £17 each) in the subjects of creative art and design, music, photography and creative writing. A three-year scholarship is also awarded to support a creative design/art pupil (monies increase each year through to sixth year with the potential to assist if students go on to study design/art at college.) This year marked the fifth scholarship to be awarded with the recipient receiving £100. The fourth scholarship recipient chose to continue his education in creative arts and was awarded £300. A music scholarship was created with £50 going towards the cost of music exams.

Under the management of Karen Hill, the following Primary Schools were awarded monies (totalling £450) for creative arts and physical education activities: Westquarter, Laurieston, Nethermains, Bowhouse, Carronshore, Bainsford, Larbert Village, Maddiston and Bonnybridge.

As part of our support for sporting activities, we sponsored three awards (£150) at the 4th Annual Sports Awards for the Tryst Community Sports Club (TCSC). These recognised the TCSC Coach of the Year, Game Changer and Sports Personality of the Year. A former Kiran's Trust Taekwondo scholar, Asia Bailey, presented the awards (see also Future Plans section). Asia is pictured with Tasha (a current Kiran's Trust Taekwondo scholar) receiving the Sports Personality award.

Carrongrange received two parcels of funding in 2019. The first was to purchase wireless headset microphones to use in their music and drama performances (£600). The second supported two activities: a drama project with Tenderhooks who work with some of the most profound and complex young people providing a sensory theatre experience; and a music project with Drake Music to make the curriculum more accessible to pupils with additional special needs using their Finger Notes programme.

Forth Valley Sensory Centre received £200 to support their arts and crafts group.

At Central Taekwondo Academy, where Kiran trained and competed, we support young people in their advancement in the sport. The Kiran Martin Taekwondo Ambassador received £300, and the Cadet and Junior Teams received £1,300. These monies provided nine athletes the opportunity to train and travel with GB Taekwondo.

Jordyn Smith, Ambassador, is competing with GB Taekwondo for Olympic qualification. Unfortunately, she suffered an injury and is now targeting the 2024 Olympics in Paris. The Kiran Martin Indomitable Spirit Prize was awarded (£50 to spend on Taekwondo equipment) along with an engraved nameplate for the trophy (donated by LECS Upholstery) to recognise an individual committed to the sport of Taekwondo but who does not participate at a competition level.

Fife/Pittenweem Area

Pittenweem Primary School maintain a Kiran Martin fund to award an annual prize for the most creative student as selected by school staff and support any creative programme(s) they choose to undertake. They did not require additional funds this year.

Edinburgh Area

Kiran's Trust continued its sponsorship of £1,000 for the Magic School at the Edinburgh International Magic Festival (MagicFest) as their charity partner. This year the sessions went 'on the road' being held at six Primary Schools throughout the area reaching 350 students, as well as at Carrongrange School (Grangemouth).

Kiran's Trust was also a funding partner with MagicFest's work with Rock Trust, a charity for youth homelessness in Scotland (£500). The young people developed and presented an exhibition of photographic illusions called The Power of Perspective. The exhibition was aimed at raising awareness of young people at risk of or experiencing homelessness.

Edinburgh Young Carers held two family-focussed festive events this year (£500). The first was a family meal where eight young carers and their families ate together and then went to the Lyceum Theatre to see A Christmas Carol. The second event gave 20 young carers and their families exclusive access to Clown Around providing fun and respite in a safe atmosphere.

A young person was funded (£50) to learn creative and life sewing skills with Best Bib N Tucker.

Two Kiran Martin Awards for Creative Writing were again presented by Wester Hailes Education Centre—one junior and one senior student received a £25 gift card and a trophy (valued at £17).

We continued our partnership with Fruitmarket Gallery sponsoring (£1,600) traditional and inventive art materials for their engagement programmes for different age groups. These included Making Matters, SmART Thinking, youth outreach, family sessions and Art in a Bag.

National

Kiran's Trust sponsored the trophies for the Scottish Taekwondo Championships featuring UK and international competitors. Their cost was £233.

The Scottish Young Carers Festival received £350 for a performance by magician Billy Reid at their festival this year.

Another young writer was supported in conjunction with the Scottish Book Trust for the What's Your Story programme (£1200).

Fundraising and Sponsors

In 2019, we had 16 friends (a minimum £10 donation), of which four make a recurring monthly payment to Kiran's Trust.

The directors recognise the importance of diversity in how we raise funds and as such have a variety of platforms available. There is a Kiran's Trust 'shop' on eBay (Paypal), where we sell new or second-hand items donated to us. Kiran's Trust is also actively using EasyFundraising and AmazonSmile for people to support us while doing their normal online shopping. Virgin Money Giving is our online donation platform for one-off and recurring donations and fundraising pages.

The Kiran's Trust website (www.kiranstrust.org) provides information regarding the charity, about Kiran (and some of her artwork), objectives and funding, upcoming fundraising events, and access to newsletters and company reports. The Gallery section provides past and current scholars a location to display their work. Additional information outlets are provided via direct mail/email of newsletters and Twitter.

The directors express their gratitude to the many individuals who have become Friends, made donations, and attended or supported fundraising events. The directors also wish to acknowledge the following companies for their donations, services, and prizes to the benefit of fundraising events or awards: BP Andrew and RSRUK Fulmar (Aberdeen); IDEAS and LECS Upholstery (Falkirk); Jen Marr Racing, Wm Christie and Sons, St. Vincent Bar, and bia bistrot (Edinburgh).

Plans for future periods

In 2019, Kiran's Trust were also selected to be a recipient of funds from BP North Sea's C2C12. This is a coast-to-coast road cycling event in 2020, from which the proceeds will provide a sound financial basis for Kiran's Trust to continue its activities.

Former Taekwondo scholar and Ambassador, Asia Bailey, is back with Kiran's Trust helping the Directors with various duties and learning how a charity functions.

Structure, Governance and Management

Nature of the Governing Document and constitution of the charity

Kiran's Trust is a company limited by guarantee, and is governed by the regulations set out in the memorandum and articles of association, incorporated on 15 September 2009, and is recognised as a charity by the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator.

The directors meet in person for an annual general meeting and conduct business throughout the year via email, videoconference and in person as required. The directors, on behalf of Kiran's Trust, award prizes, scholarships and support in the area of creative arts, design, music and writing, and for participation in Taekwondo. The recipients are selected by the administrative staff within those organisations to which Kiran's Trust provides support.

Training of Directors/Trustees

Directors' training in developments affecting the charity's areas of activity is addressed as part of the directors' meetings.

All directors are familiar with the work of the charity. If there are any areas where additional training is required this would be discussed at a directors' meeting and a suitable solution identified.

The major risks to which the charity is exposed and reviews and systems to mitigate risks

The directors have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed, in particular those related to the operation and finances of the charity, and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate their exposure.

Availability and adequacy of assets of each of the funds

The board of trustees is satisfied that the charity's assets in each fund are available and adequate to fulfil its obligations in respect of each fund.

Transactions and Financial position

The financial statements are set out on pages 12 to 17. As stated in the introduction to this report, the trustees consider the financial performance by the charity during the year to have been satisfactory.

The Statement of Financial Activities show net incoming resources for the year of £4,055 (prior year £4,870). The resources expended were £10,550 (prior year £9,792), giving a deficit of £6,495 (prior year deficit £4,922).

The total reserves at the year end stand at £23,188 (prior year £29,683).

Free unrestricted reserves amounted to £18,088 (prior year £24,333). These reserves are held to ensure that the company's commitments to their scholarships and prizes are able to be fulfilled until such time as additional funding can be put in place.

The designated reserves amounted to £5,100 (prior year £5,350). These are set aside for use during the next financial year to ensure that commitments are met.

Share Capital

The company is limited by guarantee and therefore has no share capital.

Statement of Directors' and Trustees' Responsibilities

The Charities Acts and the Companies Acts require the Board of Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity as at the end of the financial year and of the surplus or deficit of the charity. In preparing those financial statements the Board is required to :-

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the ongoing concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;

The Trustees are also responsible for maintaining adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and which are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006 and comply with regulations made under the Charities Act. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The trustees are also responsible for the contents of the trustees' report, and the responsibility of the independent examiner in relation to the trustees' report is limited to examining the report and ensuring that, on the face of the report, there are no inconsistencies with the figures disclosed in the financial statements.

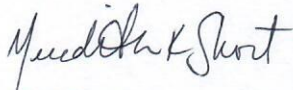

KIRAN'S TRUST

Independent Examiner's Report to the trustees of the charity on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 December 2019

I report on the financial statements of the Charity on pages 12 to 17 for the year ended 31 December 2019 which have been prepared in accordance with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (The 2005 Act) and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (The 2006 Accounts Regulations) and with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (FRS102), effective January 2016, as modified by the Charities SORP (FRS102), under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out on page 14.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The Charity's trustees, who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law, are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of The 2005 Act and The 2006 Accounts Regulations.

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) The 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company or charity law, or otherwise, and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of The 2005 Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of opinion and scope of work undertaken

I conducted my examination in accordance with Regulation 11 of The 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters.

The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and information supplied by the trustees in the course of the examination is not subjected to audit tests or enquiries, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the financial statements, and in particular, I express no opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view of the affairs of the charity, and my report is limited to the matters set out in the statement below.

I planned and performed my examination so as to satisfy myself that the objectives of the independent examination are achieved and before finalising the report I obtain written assurances from the trustees of all material matters.

Independent Examiner's Statement, report and opinion

Subject to the limitations upon the scope of my work as detailed above, in connection with my examination, I can confirm that no matter has come to my attention:

1. Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 8 of The Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

I can also confirm that this is a report under section 44(1) (c) of The 2005 Act.

The directors are satisfied that for the year ended on 31 December 2018 the charitable company was entitled to exemption from the requirement to obtain an audit under section 477 of the Companies Act 2006 and that no member or members have required the company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the year in question in accordance with section 476 of the Act. However, in accordance with section 44 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the accounts have been examined by an Independent Examiner whose report appears on pages 10 - 11.

The director(s) acknowledge their responsibility for complying with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 with respect to accounting records and the preparation of accounts.

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with the provisions in Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 applicable to companies subject to the small companies regime.

1 Accounting policies

Basis of preparation of the accounts

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice, Accounting and Reporting by Charities (Revised 2005), applicable accounting standards and the Companies Act 2006.

The company has taken advantage of the exemption from the requirement to produce a cash flow statement, on the grounds that it is a small company.

Accounting convention

The financial statements are prepared, on a going concern basis, under the historical cost convention.

Incoming Resources and resources expended

Incoming resources are accounted for on a receivable basis.

Resources expended are recognised in the period in which they are incurred.

Governance costs include the general running expenses of the company and consist mainly of those

Investment Income

Bank Interest received is included on an actual receipts basis.

Taxation

As a registered charity, the company is exempt from income and corporation tax to the extent that its income and gains are applicable to charitable purposes only. Value Added Tax is not recoverable by the company, and is therefore included in the relevant costs in the Statement of Financial Activities.

Funds structure policy

Funds are classified as either restricted or unrestricted funds, defined as follows:

The charity maintains a general unrestricted fund which represents funds which are expendable at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the objects of the charity. If parts of the unrestricted funds are earmarked at the discretion of the trustees for a particular purpose, they are designated as a separate fund. This designation has an administrative purpose only and does not legally restrict the directors' discretion to apply the fund.

There is no formal policy of transfer between funds or on the allocation of funds to designated funds, other than that described above.

2 Winding up or dissolution of the charity

If upon winding up or dissolution of the charity there remain any assets, after the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities, the assets represented by the accumulated fund shall be transferred to some other charitable body or bodies having similar objects to the charity.
